

Cervical Cancer Awareness

Cervical cancer is one of the most preventable & treatable types of cancer

Regular screenings & the HPV vaccine are key to preventing this disease.

Get informed. Get screened. Get vaccinated

Cervical Cancer Awareness

What are the signs & symptoms of cervical cancer?

Irregular or postmenopausal bleeding

Increased vaginal discharge

More severe symptoms may arise at advance stages

Get informed. Get screened. Get vaccinated

Cervical Cancer Awareness

Can cervical cancer be prevented?

Vaccination is Key

The HPV vaccine, effective against cervical cancer, is recommended for girls and boys aged 9 & above.

Screening Saves Lives

Early detection & successful treatment of cervical cancer are possible with regular screening.

Effective Treatments

Early diagnosis significantly improves the chances of successful treatment & ultimately, better outcomes.

Get informed. Get screened. Get vaccinated

